

AGRI – GRO is the leading horticulture seed and agricultural chemical input supplier in Namibia. Agri-gro represents International input companies like Syngenta, Bayer, Enza Zaden

Why Invest in Agri-Gro

Agri-gro has intimate knowledge of all horticulture producers and other wholesale suppliers. They are successful for the past 21 years. There is no seed or other input supplies AGN cannot supply to their esteemed clients. In service graduated horticulturists ensures that the best knowledge and product implementation reach the clients.

Agri-Gro Namibia/Africa

Background

Agri-gro has been in operation since 1998, and is an agricultural product, service supplier and provide training to the fresh and grain producer community. Agrigro employs 8 Namibian citizens on a full-time basis. Agri-gro's head office is in Windhoek.

AGRI-GRO is an Agent for:

Hygrotech South Africa,	Rijk Zwaan
Syngenta,	Enza Zaden
Bayer,	Adama,
Nutrigo,	Philagro

are international agro- industry suppliers entrusting Agrigro Namibia to market and sell their products nationally and to Angola.

Day to Day Business

Agrigro provides much needed information and training to producers for optimising their production, utilising the latest farming products and technology. F1 hybrid seeds are forecasted two years in advanced to ensure food security of Namibia fresh produce industry.

Agri-gro do business with 95% of the Namibian producers and large distributor chain stores like Agra, and Kaap – Agri.

